FOREWORD

It is with great pleasure that we, the Senior Class of 1973, dedicate this yearbook to R. Leslie Simpson, our Supervising Principal.

Nineteen years ago Mr. Simpson began his affiliation with this district, and, it was just a matter of time until we too entered as first graders. Together, the two of us embarked on a long and sometimes difficult journey which has reaped many rewards and brought many sorrows. Now, both of us are leaving North Star together.

Many thanks to you, Mr. Simpson, for all of the guidance and help you have given us.

ADMINISTRATION

Our Principal

Mr. A. J. Pelliccioni

To the Seniors —

Six years ago, you and I entered the Boswell Campus of the North Star School District together, and I must say they have been six hectic years.

You've grown and matured from wide-eyed youngsters lost in the halls into fine young ladies and gentlemen. Many times we've had differences of opinion, but most of the time, I'm sure, we've worked our problems out well. The big thing to me is that you have been reasonable people.

Now, prepared as you have chosen to be prepared, you are leaving us for the world of work, living, and love. May God bless each of you.

Goodbye and good luck.

A. J. Pelliccioni

*Superintendent
R. Leslie Simpson*

As we leave North Star to enter a new life, you too are leaving. We've been through a lot together, but for us, as for you, this is only the beginning.

School Board

The men and women who have worked for the benefit of the students of North Star . . . We thank you.

Dear Raymond,

You know we still can't believe that you are with us no longer. Each day we think of you or want to talk to you, but the pain of reality slowly and deeply permeates our hearts.

We must remember that life is filled with hardships, and that we must have the courage and strength to conquer the problems that life sends out to greet us.

We will always remember you as a good pal who shared in many of our own moments of joy, and who was the cause of much of our laughter.

God has called you as He has called so many others and we know you are happy in His care.

Now, as the senior Class honors you in a final tribute, our lasting thoughts and words say,

"We'll miss you."
